Electronic Voting System – User Manual (Android Application): Developed by Team CodeX.

Team Details :

Andreas DuPreez : 12207871
Azhar Mohungoo : 12239799
Gift Sefako : 12231097

- In order to use the android application of the Electronic Voting system, a user requires an Android smarthphone running at least Android 4.3 and newer releases.
- No other special specifications are required to use the android application of the system.

1. Landing page / Login Page
   The user has the option to login or register.

2. Register
   The user can enter their information and pick their region to register to use the Electronic Voting system.
   The new user must be visit an Activation Station in order to gain the ability to cast votes using the Electronic Voting System.
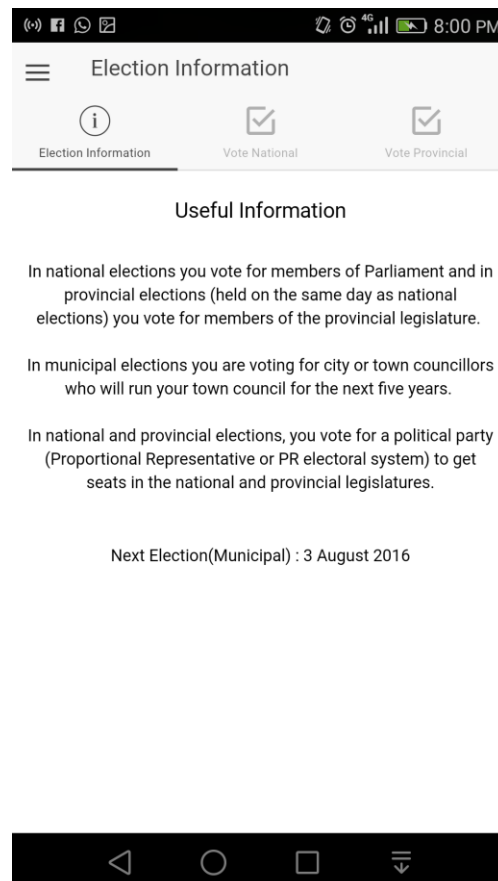

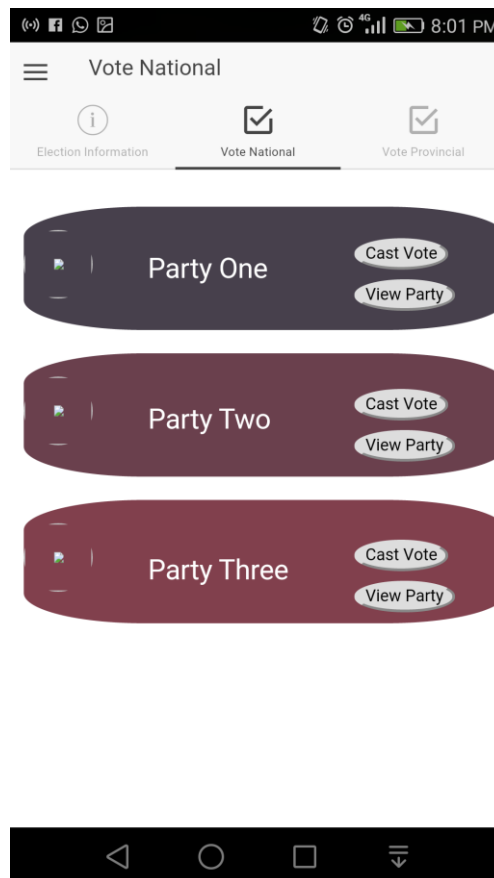

3. Once the Voter has registered they can login. But they must provide the right credentials in order to access the Electronic system.

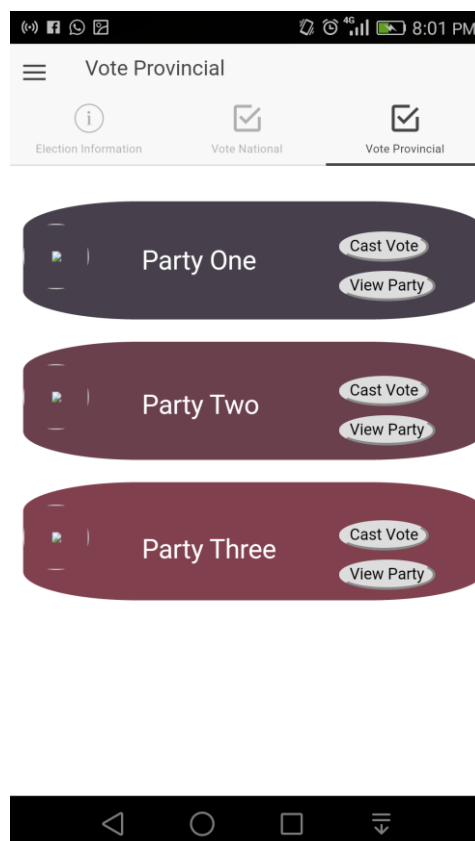

4. Once the user has successfully logged in. They are able to access the system. This view gives the user access to tabbed navigation scheme which they can use to navigate to other sections of the application.
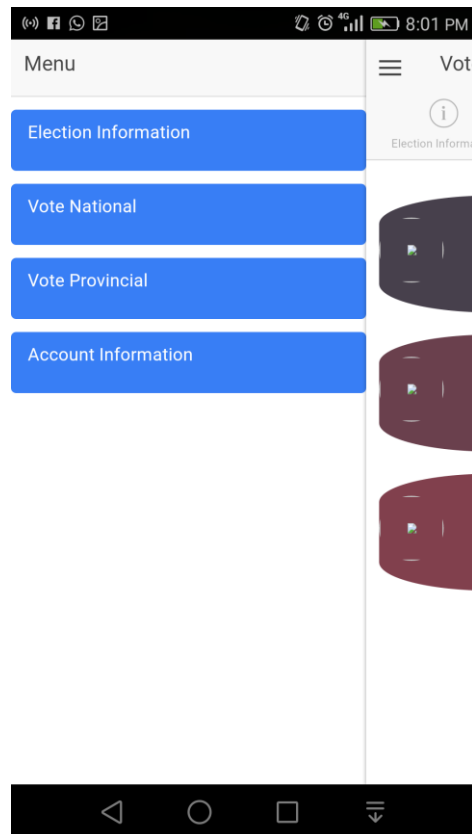

5. A logged in user can access this view to cast a national vote or view party information.

6. A user can access this view to cast a provincial vote.

7. The user can access the menu tab for easier access to other parts of the application.

8. Once a user is logged in, they can access the Account Information view to see their details as well as Activation Stations near them based on the location they chose when they registered to use the Electronic Voting system.